Min No
1	Election of Mayor  Councillor Taylor, the current Mayor, spoke about completing his third year as Mayor and how he has used this as an opportunity to promote Blyth, whether it be a function or the opening of a shop, working with a foodbank or raising funds. Whilst some people don't like the idea of a Mayor, many do, and the main aim is to do the best for Blyth. Croftway Academy have the Mayor in their curriculum "People who inspire you in the Community". Recapping over the past 12 months the Mayor spoke of his first engagement, a visit to the Blyth Family Hub on Wright Street, and his last engagement was on a wet Bank Holiday Monday doing a litter pick at Crofton field. There are many highlights to recall including the Queen's Platinum Jubilee and the Coronation of King Charles.

	Blyth Town Council also renewed their Charter with Solingen, celebrating the 60-year anniversary in 2022. A group are visiting Solingen in the next week as part of the town twinning team. 2022 saw the Council present the first Freedom of Blyth awards to Les and Margaret Welsh, Empire School of boxing and also had someone from the School of Boxing competing in the Commonwealth Games. The Mayor said he was delighted to present Councillor Aileen Barrass with the John Muir Award for some of the work she has carried out at Isabella. Looking forward to the next 12 months the Mayor talked about the Energising Blyth initiatives - hopefully work will be starting on the culture hub in June, the Council are continuing to develop the Neighbourhood Plan, there are two new play areas to be constructed and work around a new skate park is ongoing. Blyth Spartans celebrate their 125th anniversary in 2024. The Tall Ships project are awaiting a decision on their application for £5million from the heritage lottery fund and if successful will use the money to refurbish the Harbour Commissions Building as a Maritime museum. The Mayor reflected on his work in the foodbanks; people are really struggling and the cost of living crisis has hit people hard. Many people have recently visited the foodbanks, often for the first time, in an extremely distressed state, simply unable to cope. Councillor Potts nominated Councillor Taylor for the position of Mayor of Blyth Town Council. This was seconded by Councillor Reid.
